Dear All,

There is growing concern about how the Parliamentary Committee discussing the assisted suicide Bill is conducting its scrutiny of this deeply worrying proposed legislation.

The First Reading of the Bill received a clear, if not resounding, majority in The Commons, partly because 30 MPs voted in its favour only provisionally. They were assured that adequate safeguards for people being allowed to kill themselves with medical assistance would be watertight. A judge would make the final decision that there was no coercion involved, especially in respect of the elderly and vulnerable. This provision has now been dropped by the Committee, on the grounds that the legal system would be unable to cope with it. Surprisingly, this had not been clearly investigated before the Bill was discussed in Parliament.

Although the Committee has a majority in favour of assisted suicide, because of a majority vote to advance it in Parliament, serious questions are being asked about its conduct. Around double the number of witnesses selected to give evidence support assisted suicide than the number opposing it. Those not able to give evidence at the oral sessions included: the Government's Chief Suicide Prevention Strategy Adviser, the British Geriatrics Society & disability rights groups, senior palliative care doctors & legal experts. One witness suggested that it should be a criminal offence to dissuade a loved one from pursuing assisted suicide. There is also the question of whether a doctor will be given the right to suggest that you accept assisted suicide in certain cases.

We are being asked once again to write to our MPs to recognise the serious moral threat that this proposed legislation enshrines. A personal letter is always the best way to do this, but the Right to Life charity provides you with an e-mail contact to address your concerns to your MP:

Lent

Did you know?....

This Sunday, 16th February, is what once was called Septuagesima Sunday. In the Church's Liturgical Calendar in use prior to 1969, Septuagesima marked the beginning of pre-Lent preparation period. Septuagesima Sunday was the third Sunday before the beginning of Lent, Septuagesima literally meaning "seventieth" in Latin, that is, 70 days until Easter (although in fact there are only 63 days!). However, it is the opportunity for our Lenten preparation to begin.

Ash Wednesday

Ash Wednesday marks the start of the season of Lent, and this year it falls on 5th March. Our Mass arrangements on the day will be as follows:

Our Diocesan website is the primary “shop window” for the Catholic Church in our region. The Diocese wants it to be simple and intuitive to use, a hub for information, a platform for community engagement, and a showcase of our collective vision, mission and values.

To help us achieve this, a substantial update to the website is being planned and the Diocese would value your feedback. Please take a few minutes to share your thoughts about it. Your input will help make sure that the revised site meets your needs and expectations more quickly and efficiently.

Certificate in Catechesis (from Fr Gaston Afah)

The Dominican Sisters of St Joseph in Lymington are offering a 2-year Certificate in Catechesis to equip parish catechists, parents, and grandparents to transmit the Catholic faith to others. This Certificate is approved by the Bishops' Conference, and offers a formation developed from the 2020 Directory for Catechesis, relevant to the pastoral context we face in our parishes. It is delivered online in weekly sessions with notes, recordings, and presentations made available to the students. It is comprehensive in its overview of the Catechism of the Catholic Church, and in its practical application to all forms of catechesis. Two in-person days are offered each year to build up the students' community and fellowship in faith. Click here to Apply now to begin your studies in September 2025.
