Dear All,

The Nicene Creed

One of the aspects of this Jubilee Year of Hope across The Church is that we are also celebrating alongside it the 1,700th anniversary of the Council of Nicaea. It was at this Council that the Niceno-Constantinopolitan Creed, generally known as the Nicene Creed, was established. This Creed we use alongside the Apostles Creed at our Sunday Masses, which is known as the Baptismal Symbol of the Roman Church, encapsulating in shorter form the detailed teaching of the Nicene Creed on the Holy Trinity.

The late Pope Francis once stated that if we have no understanding of the history of our Faith, we are in danger of living in a spiritual vacuum, divorced from the reality of being Christ's Body, The Church. So, it is good that the Presidents of Churches Together in England have issued a Pastoral Letter to mark our celebration of Easter 2025 (which continues into Eastertide until Pentecost) about the Nicene Creed. I shall read this at our Masses this weekend.

The letter quotes the famous statement that Christ the Son is homoousios to Patri, of the same essence or nature as the Father, not a different essence or nature; in English, consubstantial with the Father (true God from true God, begotten, not made... through whom all things were made).

The Greek homoousios was accepted as the clearest expression of that one essence or nature. The Pastoral Letter outlines the background to this crucial statement.

Parish Office Update

Benches at St. Oswald's

Parishioners at St. Oswald's this Sunday will notice that several sections of the benches (pews) have been cordoned off as a precaution. A number of them have damaged or missing supports, in some cases leaving exposed a nail underneath the bench. We are endeavouring to arrange repairs at the earliest possible opportunity. Despite all of this, there is still plenty of space available throughout the Church, so please do attend Mass as normal.

Archangels Social Group Events

Parish Cake Sale & Tombola for Christian Aid next Sunday 11 May: The Archangels are organising this after the 9am Mass in the Parish Room on the first day of Christian Aid Week, as we no longer undertake the door-to-door collections in the parish. Please bake a cake to donate for the sale on 11 May or donate gifts for the tombola this weekend (3/4 May) in the boxes or bags marked 'Donations for Christian Aid' in our church porches. Please put donations for the Foodbank in the normal Foodbank container. Many thanks in anticipation!

Mingle at St Michael's: The next Mingle will be on Wednesday 14 May and thereafter will be held on the third Wednesday afternoon of the month from 2pm to 4pm in the Parish Room or hopefully out on the patio, weather permitting!

Volunteers to help organise our Parish Farewell for Fr Patrick: As you know, Fr Patrick will be retiring this year after nearly 17 years as our Parish Priest!

The proposal is to hold a Farewell Party at Heath End Village Hall on Friday 29 August from 7pm to approx 10pm (we will have to clear and vacate the Hall by 11pm). Fr Patrick's Farewell Mass will be on Sunday 7 September in Tadley, followed by the chance to socialise over tea/coffee and cake. There will be only the one morning Mass in the Parish that Sunday.

The Archangels are small in number, so if YOU are willing to join a team to help organise these Farewell Gatherings, your help would be much appreciated – please call or text Mary Lee on 07821 254100 or email her at maryt.lee@yahoo.co.uk to register your willingness to help. We need to organise a planning meeting, so please let Mary know this coming week, if you can help. Thank you!

Hope Into Action – Thanksgiving Service – Friday 9th May

Jenny LeLean, Head of Caritas Portsmouth writes: Hope Into Action in Reading partners with the local Catholic parishes to provide housing and support for people who have struggled with homelessness. This includes those who have experienced relationship breakdowns or mental health crises, those fleeing violence or persecution, those in recovery from addictions and those with an offending history.

The help includes provision of shared, single sex independent supported accommodation for single men and women (including single women with a child). Tenancies range from 6 months to 2 years providing a safe home and the security of positive relationships. With this support, Hope Into Action has witnessed tenants find confidence, motivation and belief in change.

To celebrate and give thanks for the successes so far and to invite new volunteers to join the team, Hope Into Action invites you to come to a special service of Praise and Thanksgiving on Friday 9th May at English Martyrs Church, Reading RG30 2EB from 7-8pm.
